New Hygiene Plans for NHS Patients

In January we are launching our new private hygiene plans. This is a great way of spreading the cost of your private hygienist visits over the year. We have 2 plans available that cover either 2 visits per year or 4. Please ask at reception for more information.

Merry Christmas!

With Christmas approaching and 2017 coming to a close, it is time for us to reflect on the past year. When we consider the vital importance of your oral health, we are humbled and honoured that you place such an important trust in our hands.

The Practice has always been focused on the health of your teeth and gums, and has been proactive in developing our services in the pursuit of clinical excellence.

We would like to take this opportunity to wish all our patients a Happy Christmas and prosperous New Year!

If you are on the internet over the festive period have a look at our Facebook page and like it. We share lots of top tips and advice on there which you may find helpful!
